News Brief:

Fr. Provincial Valerian Shirima will come back from his annual canonical visitation to the EAP Novitiate tomorrow Saturday. Next week he will participate in the 2008 JIF meeting.

The EAP Financial Commission met on Saturday 17th at the Loyola Curia Offices.

On Sunday 18, Loyola Curia House and Pedro Arrupe Community welcomed our EAP companions studying at Hekima. After finishing the academic year, the College closed its doors so as to begin major maintenance works, and Ours were left without abode, just like IDPs. After a brief sojourn in the communities mentioned above, our Hekima companions will move to Mary Ward Centre, so as to take part in the annual JIF meeting.

Our companions from Arrupe College, Harare, arrived from in the evening of the 18th, had dinner at Loyola House and went to Pedro Arrupe Community, where they will enjoy the community's hospitality until the JIF meeting begins. Welcome back to the Province.

These days, Fr. Terry Charlton is in Ngong Pastoral Centre conducting a seminar/retreat of young men who are discerning their vocation to the Least Society of Jesus.

Scholastic Anthony Koma, the apostle of Maper, sent Power Point slide shows to the EAP Socius, which show the building and the opening of the school for the local community of Maper, located in north Rumbek, southern Sudan. The person interested in having these large files, please contact the EAP Socius or Anthony by email. In the photo below, Anthony shakes hands with the governor, who came for the opening of the school. The photo below shows Anthony greets the governor of the region.

Fr. Jonathan Haschka and his latest big catch at Victoria Lake: Enjoy the fish. We will still be eating it next month even after giving 2/3 of it away. Blessings, Jonathan.
